

Hi Richard,

The only person I know from below is Liz Hannam, editor of ITV Central, but don't know her very well.

But I rang around and got the email addresses below for you. If I were you I'd contact both the newsdesk and the editor just to make sure the stuff is seen. I presume you'll email? I'd completely forgotten about old fashioned postal addresses!

Is there any other station I could google/ring for you to get contact details?

Charlie
